

Gauchos Leave City On Vacation Trips

By ADRIENNE SIDWELL
Davenport 6-3703

The week-end of the Fourth of July found many Gauchos and Gauchettes on trips Saturday morning Ruth Armes, Pat Gilbert, Virginia and Lavonne Conner, and Anita Shaheen, with Pat's uncle drove to Crestline to stay all night. They reported that they had a wonderful trip.

Speaking of Crestline, Gordon Garrett, Danny Marsh, and McKelvin McCown visited there on the weekend, too.

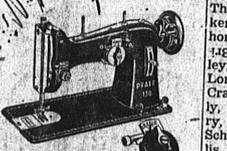

Peggy and Kenneth Van Volkenburg and their parents "visited" Mexico over the holidays "It was fun," they echoed.

A really lucky kid is Shirley Powell, B-8, who will be at Camp Rancho Osito, which is at Big Bear Lake, for two weeks. She reports she is having a grand time.

A barbecue was given last Thursday night for Barbara Irvin in honor of her birthday.

The illustrated maple lamp is of a matching pair that will add the magic touch to any Early American ensemble.

Peggy Van Volkenburg, Judy Patterson, Karen Pederson, Jean Kellman, Shirley Endo, Darlyne McCann, and Eve Petranovich were there to help her celebrate. She received many lovely gifts.

Vacations, vacations, vacations! Some Narbonne kids get scattered over the whole United States on a vacation! Take Barbara Irvin, who is in Maryland. Iowa is the scene of visiting for Karen Pederson. Jean Kellman is touring Wisconsin.

Many Narbonne students thoroughly enjoyed the Coliseum fireworks. The special attraction, auto daredevils, also went over big. Such an enthusiastic group who attended comprised: Dickie Young, Ronnie Westfall, Phyllis and Mrs. Westfall, Bobby Gravett, and

Among the lucky kids who have found summer jobs are: Kay Francis, who is working at the fish cannery; Pat Gilbert, teaching dancing in San Pedro; Bobby Gravett is employed by a market, Ruth Armes is also working in San Pedro.

Anett Grate is now minus her tonsils, as she had them "worked on" a couple of weeks ago. She thoroughly enjoyed having them out. Or did you, Anett?

The latter part of August will find Joyce Bernhardt and family in good ole' Texas. Just about the same time Carmen Ochoa, Sharon Anderson, and Adrienne Sidwell will be at "Anytown U.S.A.," a leadership camp in Idyllwild for a week.

Mary Helen Briley and George Bell have postponed their planned August wedding until this coming January.

A surprise bridal shower for Emilee Waters was given last Thursday night by Beth Schlenker and Barbara Jones at Beth's home. Those attending were: Irene Waters, Mrs. Schlenker, Charlotte Emery, Don Ann Long, Mary Pendray, Barbara Cracknell, Pat Doran, Jane Gately, Betty Gyllenskog, Diane Perry, Susan Mathews, Evelyn Schlenker, Dennis Bowman, Phyllis Bowman, Mrs. Ida Boyd, Mrs. Irene Waters, Mrs. Schlenker and the hostesses, Beth and Barbara. Emilee, who will be married to Johnny Boyd, a W'22 graduate tomorrow, night at 8 o'clock in the Lomita Presbyterian Church, received many lovely gifts.

The wedding of Betty Gyllenskog and Jack Doran will take place this coming Saturday at the Nativity Catholic Church.

Wow! Narbonne certainly has eight sharp-looking candidates entered in the Miss Lomita Contest so far! They are: Mary Jollenstein, Vera Roberson, Diane Rowe, Peggy Reeves, Dixie Leonard, Nadine Naida, and Betty Hutchinson and Luettia Hibbard, former graduates. According to many this contest should be a tough battle to the end. The finals will be July 27 at the VFW Hall. There will be dancing afterwards. The public is invited.

Congratulations are being extended to Susan Mathews, who won a $400 scholarship to Pepperdine College!

The Lomita Lassies, the only Narbonne senior girl softball team entered in the Torrance Lomita-League is undefeated as yet. They will play Walteria tonight. If you don't have anything to do tonight, why not come and watch them play at McMaster Park at 7 p.m. Last week the Lassies downed a highly-touted Harvey Machine Co. by a score of 18-10. The team members are Joyce Bernhardt, Laura Tolbert, Dot Nelson, Millie Childs, Marge Cullinan, Mary and Anett Grate, Dorothy Searies, Lila Cordray, and A. Sidwell.

BIG SHOW CATCHES ON
Seems like the whole town is talking about the big Benefit Show that the Barber Shoppers are putting on this month. Of course, I mean the Little League ball game benefit. Everywhere I go, people ask me about it. Very gratifying! . . . That's what I like about people. They will go all-out for a worthy cause. And 'cause this organization and the kids concerned have done so well to date, they certainly deserve the plaudits of the crowd. And plaudits they will get, come Saturday night, July 25, which is the date of said show. The time is 8 p.m., and the place is the Torrance Civic Auditorium.

will go to the Little League organization to help build a clubhouse and/or other things they need . . . And have you seen the ball field they built right next to the Torrance Airport, alongside of the new extension of Crenshaw Blvd.? . . . Real Sharp!

Well, the SPEBSQSA International Convention and Contest in Detroit is all over but the shooting. (Singing in this instance). I understand they had a real RECORD CROWD . . . Of course Herb Allen, our prey who attended this year, brought back a glowing account of the week's activities . . . We hope to have it in Los Angeles in 1966 . . . The "Statenmen" quartet from Sacramento was one of the "medallists" . . . A medallist is one that places in the first five out of the hundred or more that enter . . . Watch during the following weeks for IMPORTANT INFORMATION concerning the show . . . Been a busy week. See you next time.

FEWER FREIGHT CARS
There are 40,000 fewer freight cars serving major American railroads today than on V-J Day. More than 19,000 cars are more than 46 years old.
